Section F: Comprehension

Read the passage carefully and answer questions 25-32.

One day, a fox was very hungry. He searched high and low for food in the forest. However, he could not find anything to eat.	1
Finally, he saw a farmer's house at the far end of the forest. From the window, he saw his meal on top of a high shelf. It was the biggest bunch of grapes he had ever seen. The fox licked his lips excitedly. "I am going to steal that for my meal!" he said. He sneaked into the house.	5
To reach the grapes, the fox had to jump high in the air. He jumped with all his might. However, the shelf was too tall and he could not reach the grapes.	10
Finally, the fox gave up. He thought that it was too difficult. As he walked away, he muttered, "The grapes must be sour anyway." The fox continued his search for other food in the forest.	15
