The pictures below show Vincent, Siti and Meera having a conversation. Study the pictures carefully.

17 August 2026, 11.45 a.m.

As part of our community service, let's fold 1,000 paper cranes to bring joy to the patients at Rosewood Hospital!

Great idea, Vincent! We can call it 'Project Paper Crane' or 'Cranes for Smiles'!

Siti, let's use your second suggestion. We'll definitely need coloured paper. We won't need glue, but we will need some nylon string to hang the paper cranes.

Alright, I'll email Miss Tan to propose this as our class community service project and tell her we need the materials by 15 October.

No, Vincent. We must get the materials by 8 October so that we'll have enough time to fold the cranes. What do you think, Meera?

Right, Siti! Vincent, you should also explain why our class is doing this as our community service project and the value it teaches us.

Part 2: CONTINUOUS WRITING (36 marks)

Write a composition of at least 150 words about making a difference.

The pictures are provided to help you think about the topic.

Your composition should be based on one or more of these pictures.

Consider the following points when you plan your composition:

Last summer, Maya decided to embark on a journey that would forever broaden her perspective on life. She had always been curious about places far from her hometown, and this trip promised experiences that would deepen her understanding of different cultures.

On the first day, she visited a small village nestled among rolling hills. The locals welcomed her with radiant smiles. Maya felt a sense of fascination as she explored the winding streets, each corner revealing a new surprise.

(17)

In the evenings, she would sit by the river, watching the sunset that seemed to illuminate the sky with brilliant shades of orange and pink. These moments reminded her that life was not just about achievements, but also about the beauty that surrounded her.

(18)

One afternoon, while hiking a steep trail, Maya encountered an elderly man who was frail yet radiated a quiet wisdom. He shared inspirational stories of his youth, and Maya listened intently, knowing that these narratives would enlighten her in ways books never could. By the end of the trip, Maya felt transformed.

Text 2

The extract below is taken from an online article.

Wearing the right shoes is important for every runner, whether they are experienced athletes or beginners. Good running shoes do more than keep the feet comfortable. They play a key role in helping runners perform well and in preventing injuries.

Firstly, proper running shoes provide strong support and sufficient cushioning. When a runner's feet hit the ground, the shoes help to absorb the impact. This reduces pressure on the feet, ankles and knees, making running safer. It also lowers the risk of common injuries such as sprains, muscle strain and joint pain.

In addition, running shoes are designed to help the body move correctly. They improve balance and support smoother, more controlled movements while running. With better stability and posture, runners can run more efficiently and for longer periods without discomfort.

In conclusion, choosing the right pair of running shoes may seem like a simple decision, but it is an important one. The right shoes help runners enjoy their runs, improve their performance and protect their bodies from injury.

For each question from 21 to 25, choose the best answer (1, 2, 3 or 4) on the Optical Answer Sheet. (5 marks)

21 Which of the following is true about the launch?

- (1) Reservations for the shoes can be made online.
- (2) Only a limited number of shoes will be available.
- (3) Anyone can purchase the shoes on 12 December.
- (4) Falcon shoes will be sold at all Sports House outlets.

22 What kind of poster is shown in Text 1?

- (1) educational
- (2) promotional
- (3) motivational
- (4) informational

23 Linda often experiences pain in her feet and prefers to run at night. Based on the information in Text 1, which features of the shoes would be most important for her?

- (1) A and B
- (2) C and F
- (3) D and F
- (4) D and E

24 What is the main message of Text 2?

- (1) It is easy to choose a pair of running shoes.
- (2) Running shoes are for the young and old.
- (3) Proper running shoes makes one run faster.
- (4) Wearing the right pair of running shoes is important.

25 Both the descriptions for the shoes in Text 1 and the content of Text 2

- (1) advertise the latest running shoes
- (2) offer tips on how to select running shoes
- (3) compare different features of running shoes

Please note that the passage for Comprehension questions 66 to 75 in Booklet B is on the next page. You may now go on to Booklet B.

Section I: Comprehension (Open-ended) 20 marks

Refer to the passage below when you answer questions 66 to 75 in Booklet B.

Brian's eyes snapped open. He was unbelievably, viciously thirsty. His mouth was dry and tasted foul and sticky. His lips were cracked and seemed as if they were bleeding. His skin was all withered up. He knew the thirst and felt the burn on his face. It was mid-afternoon. The sun had come over him and cooked him while he slept. His face felt like it was on fire. It was going to blister and peel. 5

He stood, using the tree to pull himself up because there was still some pain and much stiffness and looked down towards the lake. It was water but he did not know if he could drink it. He felt the idea of drinking water from a lake was awful, but the lake was blue, looked clean and his mouth and throat raged with thirst. Would there be another water source he could drink from? Moreover, he had swallowed a lot of the water while he was swimming out of the plane and getting to shore. 10

Brian felt helpless in a situation consisting of a plane wreck, a badly bruised forehead, an aching body and a thirst that tore at him until he could not think. He took small steps down the bank to the lake. Along the edge, there were thick prickly grasses in the way and the water looked a little murky. He scowled in disgust at the small bugs swimming in the water and was glad to see a log extending about ten metres out into the lake, with sturdy branches sticking up, almost like strong handles. 15

He balanced on the log, holding himself up with the limbs, and teetered out past the weeds and muddy water. When he was out where the water was clear and he could see no bugs swimming, he kneeled on the log to drink. He thought he would just try a sip, still pondering over the lake water. However, when he brought a cupped hand to his mouth and felt the cold lake water trickle past his cracked lips and over his tongue, he could not stop. 20

He had never, not even on long bicycle trips in the summer, been this thirsty. He stooped and put his mouth to the lake and drank and drank, pulling it deep and swallowing great gulps of it. He drank until his stomach was swollen, until he nearly fell off the log with it, then he got up and staggered his way back to the bank where he was immediately sick and threw up most of the water. 25

However, his thirst was gone by then and the water seemed to reduce the pain in his head as well, although the sunburn still felt hot on his face. He pulled himself once more up the bank to the tall tree without branches and sat again with his back against it. It was hot now. The sun was high and he sat in the shade of the tree in relative comfort, but there were things he knew he had to do. 30

Hiccups are sudden, repeated sounds that happen when your body makes a small "jump" inside your chest. They occur (26) _____ the diaphragm, a muscle under the lungs (27) _____ helps you breathe, suddenly contracts. This quick movement makes you breathe (28) _____ air very fast. At the same time, the gap between your vocal cords snaps shut, causing (29) _____ familiar "hic" sound.

There are (30) _____ reasons why hiccups occur. You might eat or drink too quickly, swallow too much air or even laugh too hard. Sometimes, feeling nervous or excited can also make you get hiccups. In most cases, hiccups last only a few minutes and stop on (31) _____ own.

Last Saturday, my family gathered at a bustling seafood restaurant. It was a special occassion as it was Grandma's eightieth birthday. My cousin, Sarah, who cared deeply (37)
about her appearence, arrived wearing a stunning silk dress that shimmered under the (38)
chandeliers. However, she soon felt embrassed and her confidence vanished when she
(39)  (40)
realised she had accidentally wore one black sandal and one navy blue slipper on her frantic (41)
rush to leave home. Everyone at the table chuckled soft at the sight, but Grandma gave (42)
her a warm, comfort hug to make her feel better.
(43)
During the lively party, Grandma receives many wonderful gifts from her (44)
grandchildren, ranging from handmade cards to elegeant jewellery. My brother gave her (45)
a brand-new tablet, explaining that it would be much more convinient for her to video call us whenever she missed hearing our voices or seeing our faces. Grandma smiled brightly, her eyes twinkling with joy as she thanked us all for such a memorable day.
